About

Chuao Chocolatier

Chuao Chocolatier (pronounced chew-wow) is committed to arousing your senses through unusual, unexpected and delicious chocolate experiences. Each confection is made with fresh, natural ingredients and the world's finest responsibly sourced cacao.

All Natural

We use recipes in a kitchen, not formulas in a lab, and believe that the best ingredients are found in nature. Chuao confections reflect our commitment to fresh, all natural food.

Artisan

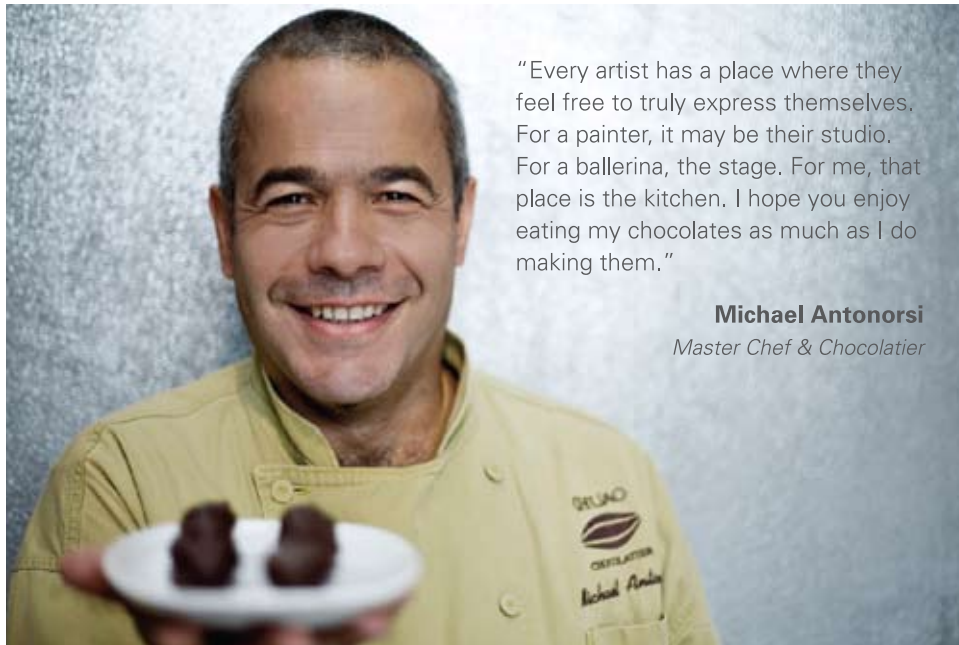

We use European chocolate making techniques, hand crafting our confections with close attention to the quality of each small batch from start to finish.

Responsibly Sourced

Our ancestors instilled in us a respect for cacao and the people who grow it. Therefore, we partner with purveyors who share our interest in sustainable farming and ethical business practices.

Experience

We like to think outside the chocolate box, combining innovation and creativity to deliver confections with delicately balanced layers of flavors and textures.

"Every artist has a place where they feel free to truly express themselves. For a painter, it may be their studio. For a ballerina, the stage. For me, that place is the kitchen. I hope you enjoy eating my chocolates as much as I do making them."
